CODE OF CONDUCT FORM LEARNERS

Name and Surname of Learner:

PREAMBLE

The South African Schools Act 84 of 1996 obliges the school to adopt a Code of Conduct for learners. This document is aimed at establishing a disciplined and purposeful environment to facilitate effective education and learning in schools. This policy shall uphold the rights of all individuals as enshrined in the Bill of rights in the Constitution of SA.

Wierda Independent School strives to promote and establish close co-operation amongst all stake holders based on:

- Professionalism
- Respect
- Tolerance

INTRODUCTION AND DEFINITION

This code of conduct is an agreed set of behaviours that are acceptable within our school. The code of conduct includes the levels of misconduct and disciplinary actions that apply. It also includes the rules that govern the conduct and relations between learners, educators, parents and the community.

AIM

The aim of the code of conduct is to maintain the disciplined and purposeful school environment that exists at Wierda Independent School. It is dedicated to creating an atmosphere that is conducive to practising culture of high-quality teaching and learning.

THE RIGHTS OF LEARNERS

The constitution of the Republic of South Africa states that all learners have the right to education.

This includes the right:

- To learn and be taught in a safe school environment.
- To attend regularly all classes, free from interference whether of a verbal or physical nature by any other person.
- To receive regular feedback reflecting academic progress.
- To make responsible use of all school facilities subject to availability and limitations imposed thereon by school rules and general school organisation.
- To receive appropriate counselling for personal and/or educational problems.
- To request, in writing, to be excused from any activity which is against religious beliefs.
- To have privacy in their personal possessions unless the principal or his/her designee has reasonable cause to believe that illegal or harmful material possessed by the learner are being used to disrupt the educational process.
- To attend a school free of drugs, weapons, drunkenness, bullying and intimidation.
- To attend a school free of sexual harassment or criminal behaviour.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF LEARNERS

Learners undertake:

- To learn
- To attend all classes daily and on time.
- To do all academic activities including homework.
- To be in possession of appropriate working materials.
- To be responsible for their own work.
- To respect all persons and property.
- To refrain from abusive or vulgar language and inflammatory actions.
- To conduct themselves in a safe and respectable manner.
- To promote the standard of cleanliness and neatness.
- To protect school property.
- To refrain from and report any unauthorised removals of school property from the school premises.
- To practise tolerance within the context of interpersonal relations in the school.
- To refrain from the use of drugs, assault, carrying of dangerous weapons, bullying, sexual harassment, drunkenness and smoking.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARENTS WITH REGARD TO LEARNERS

Parents must ensure that:

- They receive regular academic report from the school regarding their child's progress.
- Their child attends school each day, is punctual and in cases of absence explains the reasons for such absence to the school.
- They protect and ensure the rights of their child to learn.

Signature

- As far as possible, their child attends school in good health and conforms to generally accepted norms of personal cleanliness and neatness.
- They provide their children with the resources, basic equipment and learning material needed to complete schoolwork.
- They refrain from abusive language or inflammatory behaviour.
- They bring to the attention of school authorities any problem, condition or circumstances that affect their child or other children or persons in the school community.
- They seek change in an orderly and approved manner.
- They keep the school informed of any changes of address and any other personal details as required.
- They provide the school upon request with original reports received at other educational institutions, particularly at the time of initial enrolment to the school. Parents of learners who are not South African citizens must provide the school, upon request with original study permits or temporary residency permits.
- They discuss report card, work assignments and homework with their children.
- Their children abide by the rules, regulations and procedures set forth by the school.
- They endeavour to promote positive inter-personal relations between learners, educators, other parents and the wider school community in the best educational interest of their children.
- They pay school fees as determined by the school.

UNIFORM & APPEARANCE

We have a cost effective and comfortable uniform that is available from the school. Uniform is compulsory from Gr.1 onward.

Learners must be proud of their school uniform. They are therefore expected to always be neat and well-groomed.

See “Rules and Regulations” for details.

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Protection of Personal Information Act (POPI Act) sets conditions for responsible parties (Wierda Independent) to lawfully process personal information and photos of learners. Parents and learners hereby give permission that photos may be shared on social media for marketing purposes. These will be done with utmost care and professionalism.

DISCIPLINING LEARNERS

Discipline and punishment

- The main goal of this code of conduct and discipline procedures for learners is to ensure that the education of learners at school happens in a safe and orderly environment.
- Learners are encouraged to develop self-discipline.
- Discipline must be fair, corrective and educative, rather than punishment orientated.
